Monterey Pass Battlefield Park & Museum
Relics Display Day

Nothing more solidly connects the present to the struggles of the past than relics of those times and events.

Nearly 200,000 soldiers fought at Gettysburg. 50,000 of those and their camp followers were in Gen Robert E. Lee's retreat.

On Saturday, August 13th from 10 am to 4 pm local historians, artifact hunters and those who are curious about the Battle of Monterey Pass are invited to visit, and share their finds and collections at Monterey Pass Battlefield Museum located at

14325 Buchanan Trail East
Waynesboro, PA 17268

On display will be weapons, bullets, artillery shells, and soldiers Civil war equipment. These relics have been excavated from private properties (with the land owners' permissions) mostly from the Gettysburg and Antietam Campaigns including Monterey Pass. Displayers will include members of the South Mountain Relic and Coin Club who will be available to describe their finds and tell stories of their relic hunting adventures.

If you have Civil War relics and collections you would like to display with others, or just want to see what historians throughout the community can show you about the era, join us August 13th.
